NEW DIRECTORS RESCIND VOTE OF OLD BOARD

New York, Dec. 16.—An official bulletin from Ban Johnson, president of the American league, announcing that resolutions adopted by the old board of directors of the league last Wednesday morning had been rescinded by the newly elected board Wednesday evening was received today by the New York American league club.

The resolutions, which were adopted by the majority members of the old board, asked for an investigation of Johnson's conduct as president-secretary-treasure; of the league, the nature of his contract with the league.

"Counsel for the New York club has been instructed immediately to take steps as in their opinion are warranted by this illegal action" said a statement issued by the New York club. The statement said the action was contrary to that part of the league constitution which says "the finding of the board shall be final, and under no circumstances shall be reconsidered, reopened or inquired into either by the league or any subsequent board." reopened or inquired into either by the league or any subsequent board."

According to the attorneys of the New York club, it puts Johnson and Philip Ball one of the new directors, in contempt of the injunction orders of Supreme Court Justices Luce and Wasner, both of whom permitted Pitcher Mays to pitch for the New York club and restrained Johnson, the American league and the Cleveland and St. Louis clubs from considering the games in which Mays participated other than as championship contests.

SPORT AT CORNELL

The idea of pelo as a college sport originated in the reserve officers' training camp established at Cornen and has been endorsed by the ramy authorities as a useful step in military training. The university athletic officials will be in charge of the scheme, but it is understood that army officers will be detailed to coach the players.
